36. Exhibitors shall arrange their exhibits as directed by the Stewards, and no exhibit shall afterwards be moved without the sanction of the Steward, under penalty of disqualification.
37. The owner or exhibitor of an exhibit, or stand of exhibits, disapproved of as an exhibit by the Committee must, immediately upon notice to that effect, remove such exhibit or stand of exhibits, from the ground.
38. Exhibitors will render themselves liable to disqualification of the exhibit by either refusing to follow instructions or by removing any official placard, ticket, sash or ribbon affixed or posted by the Stewards.

DANGEROUS OR DISEASED EXHIBITS

39. Should the Committee have any reason to suspect that any exhibit is dangerous or objectionable, they may have same removed from, or refused admission to, the grounds.

PROTESTS

40. All protests must be given in writing to the Secretary accompanied by a fee of $50.00 on or before 6.30 pm on Saturday, 4th December. The money shall be absolutely forfeited to the funds of the Society if the protest be deemed, on due consideration, unfounded or frivolous.

DISQUALIFICATION

41. An exhibitor giving a wrong description of his or her exhibit with the intention of deceiving or defrauding the Society shall be disqualified from exhibiting at any future Show, and the particulars of the case shall be published in the minutes of the Society. Exhibitors will be required to make a statutory declaration regarding their entries if the Committee so desires.
42. No person who has been disqualified from exhibiting at any Show of The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Inc. or at any Show of any Society affiliated therewith shall during the period of disqualification be allowed to act as agent, representative or employee of any exhibitor at any Show of the Society.
43. During the period of disqualification no entry will be received from any person disqualified by The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Inc. or by any Society affiliated therewith, and should any entry be accidentally accepted it shall be deemed to be void and the entry fee will be returned.
44. The Committee reserves the power to reject or remove any exhibitor, employee or attendant, or any visitor, from the Show, without being required to give any explanation or being liable for compensation.
45. The Committee reserves the right to postpone, and further postpone, the Show from the advertised date, and make what alterations they deem advisable in the Schedule of Prizes or other Show arrangements.
46. The decision of the Committee on all points shall be final without recourse.

GENERAL

47. Every reasonable care will be taken of exhibits, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society. Ordinary precautions will be taken to guard against fire, and to protect the property of the Society and Exhibitors, but exhibits will not be insured at the cost of the Society.
48. The Society will not be responsible for any accident that may be caused through or by the exhibit or exhibitor, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and indemnified against any legal proceedings from such accidents.
