24. In the event of there being no competition in any class, prizes may be given if the Judges certify to particular merit; but they are specially requested to withhold prizes even where there is competition, if the exhibits are of inferior description, or not suitable for a class in which they are competing; they may award a second prize or third prize instead of a first, or may divide the prizes.
25. Champion awards: In making these awards, the Judges will only select from exhibits which have gained First prizes in classes eligible.

26. Reserve champions will be selected from the First and Second prize winners in their respective divisions.
27. No competing exhibit will be allowed to wear any ribbon, badge, or mark whilst being judged. (This does not refer to decorating ribbons, goat ear-marks, or ear-discs.)

TROPHIES

28. The Society offers trophies for different awards as described in each section of the schedule. Trophies will be presented at the Society's annual presentation evening held in May/June each year.
29. It is the responsibility of all Section Co-ordinators to provide the Secretary with the names and addresses of all trophy winners before leaving the ground. Failure to do this will mean that invitations may not be issued for the trophy night.
30. A trophy will be donated by the Committee to recognise the achievement of the exhibitor who gains the most points at the show.
31. Trophy winners are reminded that a short note of thanks to the Award donor would be appreciated. If you do not have the address, letters may be left with the Show Co-Coordinator.

ARRANGEMENT OF EXHIBITS

32. The arrangements as to position, classifications and grouping of exhibits shall be under the control of the Hall Steward
33. All Award Cards will be arranged with the approval of the Hall Steward

CONTROL OF EXHIBITS

34. One Award Card only is issued for each prize won.
35. No exhibit shall be removed before 7.00 pm. Exceptions: livestock (5.00 pm), Horses In Action (when classes finished). Earlier removal must have the written consent of the Show Co-Ordinator.
36. Exhibitors shall arrange their exhibits as directed by the Stewards, and no exhibit shall afterwards be moved without the sanction of the Steward, under penalty of disqualification.
37. The owner or exhibitor of an exhibit, or stand of exhibits, disapproved of as an exhibit by the Committee must, immediately upon notice to that effect, remove such exhibit or stand of exhibits, from the ground.
38. Exhibitors will render themselves liable to disqualification of the exhibit by either refusing to follow instructions or by removing any official placard, ticket, sash or ribbon affixed or posted by the Stewards.

DANGEROUS OR DISEASED EXHIBITS

39. Should the Committee have any reason to suspect that any exhibit is dangerous or objectionable, they may have same removed from, or refused admission to, the grounds.

PROTESTS

40. All protests must be given in writing to the Secretary accompanied by a fee of $50.00 on or before 6.30 pm on Saturday, 4th December. The money shall be absolutely forfeited to the funds of the Society if the protest be deemed, on due consideration, unfounded or frivolous.

DISQUALIFICATION

41. An exhibitor giving a wrong description of his or her exhibit with the intention of deceiving or defrauding the Society shall be disqualified from exhibiting at any future Show, and the particulars of the case shall be published in the minutes of the Society. Exhibitors will be required to make a statutory declaration regarding their entries if the Committee so desires.
42. No person who has been disqualified from exhibiting at any Show of The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Inc. or at any Show of any Society affiliated therewith shall during the period of disqualification be allowed to act as agent, representative or employee of any exhibitor at any Show of the Society.
43. During the period of disqualification no entry will be received from any person disqualified by The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Inc. or by any Society affiliated therewith, and should any entry be accidentally accepted it shall be deemed to be void and the entry fee will be returned.
44. The Committee reserves the power to reject or remove any exhibitor, employee or attendant, or any visitor, from the Show, without being required to give any explanation or being liable for compensation.
45. The Committee reserves the right to postpone, and further postpone, the Show from the advertised date, and make what alterations they deem advisable in the Schedule of Prizes or other Show arrangements.
46. The decision of the Committee on all points shall be final without recourse.

GENERAL

47. Every reasonable care will be taken of exhibits, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society. Ordinary precautions will be taken to guard against fire, and to protect the property of the Society and Exhibitors, but exhibits will not be insured at the cost of the Society.
48. The Society will not be responsible for any accident that may be caused through or by the exhibit or exhibitor, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and indemnified against any legal proceedings from such accidents.
49. Persons contravening any of the Society's Rules or Regulations shall forfeit any prize money which may be awarded to them.
50. No entertainment shall be allowed on the ground without special permission.
51. The holding of raffles on the show ground is not permitted
52. The sales and use of water pistols, fireworks or sparklers is strictly forbidden on the show ground (except for the organised firework event)
53. No dogs, pets or unauthorised animals allowed on the grounds except for Competition.
